The dedication is to H.G. The Duke of Argyll, and is signed 'H. S. Strafford, Secty., Cowal Highland Gathering'.

This collection was compiled from about 300 tunes submitted in a competition held by the Cowal (Dunoon) Highland Gathering Committee. The competition must have been held in 1911 or 1912, since one of the tunes is dated 1911, and a notice stating that the collection 'will be published this month' appeared in the Celtic Monthly, July 1912. A review appeared in the following issue. By 1932 the collection was 'long since out of print' (Askew).
